

An Introduction to Irish Music

a Workshop for Elementary and Middle School Educators

Comhaltas is the largest group in the world dedicated to the preservation and promotion of traditional Irish music, song, dance, language and culture. We are proud to sponsor a workshop which is an INTRODUCTION to Irish Music for the Elementary and Middle School classroom. The 4 hour workshop will be given by Anita Arden, a respected elementary school music educator and accomplished Irish musician.

Topics covered will include:

- the instruments
- types of traditional music
- dance
- how to use the music to meet Arizona standards
- how to incorporate it into the General Music classroom
- resources for more information
